ST. LOUIS PASSES NEW YORK.

WARD'S TEAM BEATEN BY THE CRIP-PLED CLEVELANDERS.

Brooklyns Take Some Medicine, Too-Box. ton, by Defeating the Cincinnatia, Gain Upon the Philadelphias. The Chicagos Throttle Manlon's Young Men-Gossip.

The St. Louis Club, by taking a fall out of the Brooklyse yesterday, passed the dejected New Yorks, who were beaten by the Clevelands in the Forest City. Pittsburgh outplayed Washington, which, with Cleveland's triumph over Ward's team, makes Foutz's hold upon third place decidedly ticklish. The Baltimores were beaten by the Chicagos, who displaced Washington from tenth position, but Hanlon's men are only one point behind New York. The Philadelphias reselved an unexpected setback at the hands of the Louisvilles, and the Bostons gained upon the Quakers, as the former won a ball from the Cincinnatis. CLEVELAND, 9; NEW YORK, 7.

CLEVELAND, July 13.-New York had the game won to-day, until the fifth inning. Then Baldwin was seized with one of his old-time fits of nervousness, and Cleveland knocked the ball right and left, earning three runs. Previous to that time the Clevelands were perfectly willing to have the game stopped, and be seached Umpire Hurst to call it, but the New Yorks were very obdurate. Before four innings had been played rain began to fall. It was not a hard rain, but very disagreeable, was not a hard rain, but very disagreeable, nevertheless. Capt. Tebeau was anxious to get under shelter, with the score very much against him. but Hurst refused to have it called, and Ward sided with him.

New York ought not to have had a run in the first inning. The first two batters were easily retired, and then Tiernan reached first on bails. Davis popped up a high fly, and the bail came down to Tebeau. For some unneconntable reason Childs rushed up and knocked it out of Tebeau's hand, and this mistake resuited in scoring four runs. Cleveland got a run on Fuller's error and Burkett's sacrifice, and a long fly to the outfield gave Fuller a run. A base on bails to Virtua McFarland's hit, Cuppy's scratch hit, and McKean's two-bagber brought in three more for Cleveland. Hits by Burke, Fuller, and Baldwid, with Stafford's long sacrifice fly and good base running, scored two for New York in the fourth. Cleveland got, the first hand the search of the singles. Cuppy's sacrifice, and a three-bagger, Ewing's single, Tebeau's hit for two bases. O'Connor and McFarland's singles, Cuppy's sacrifice, and a three-bagger by Childs. In the pinth Stafford hit for three bases, but overran third and was retired. The score:

St. Louis, 4: BROOKLYN, 1.

St. Louis, July 13.—With all the luck in their favor, the St. Louis team had no difficulty in winning to-day's game from the crippled Brooklynites. The oppressive heat had a very corressing effect upon the players for the first few innings, and they played as though they didn't care for a manager's anger or fines. Toward the middle of the game the home team bolstered up their playing a little.

Both pitchers were very ineffective, but the local players bunched their hits while the visitors got their consolation in dribbles. The latter were the first to score in the third inning, and it was their last run. Stovey led off with a long drive to Dowd, Stovey scoring on the out.

The home team scored in the fourth 60th.

a long drive to Dowd, Stovey scoring on the out.

The home team scored in the fourth, fifth, and sixth innings. Bannon reached first on sails in the fourth, stole second, went to third on a sacrifice, and scored on Crooks's base hit. In the fifth Quinn hit safely, was sacrificed to second, and Dowd sent him home with a long drive, which netted him three bases. In the sixth Peitz made a double, and Werden bunted to Richardson and beat it to first, Richardson made an overthrow and Peitz scored. Werden went to third, Quinn followed with a single, scoring Werden. The score: ST. LOUIS. | BROOKLYS.

Half in 2:33 3-4-Hyderabad Makes : Show of His Opponents in the July Sinkes-Stonenell Benten by Steve Esten - Sport's Good Mile - M. F. Dwyer Wine with Chateau and Hammie,

Despite the fact that the air was close and muggy yesterday, fully 8,000 persons went to Monmouth Park to see the Shrewsbury Handicap and the July Stakes decided over a track that was faster than on any previous day of the meeting. The sun shone through heavy clouds at intervals, and there was scarcely any relief from the oppressive heat until the last race had been run, when a smart thunder shower laid the dust and made the journey homeward endurable. The July was the easiest kind of a for the Messrs. Keene's Hyderabad, the giant son of Hyder Ail and Glorianne playing with ils opponents and passing the finishing post winner in the most impressive style. The race for the Shrewsbury Handicap, at one and s half miles, was also of a hollow character at the end. Messrs. Brown & Rogers's Pickpocket, an uncertain brute at best, running kindly all the way, and defeating the heavily played Banquet and Mars in the remarkably fast time of 2:33%. There was more interest in the Shrawabury

Handicap than in any other race of the day, the talent being evenly divided between Mars and Banquet, with here and there a few of the faithful who thought that Pickpocket or Picknicker would prove victorious. The California mare Marigold, a record-holder over a distance of ground has not been in the East long enough to become acclimated, and it is altogether probable that she was meeting animals beyond her class in the quartet she was asked to beat yesterday. At any rate, nobody wanted her at any price. Banquet spoiled one or two pretty starts, but the little gelding finally made up his mind to run, and went away with the field to an even break. Mars and Pickpocket, side by side, made the pace quite warm in the run up the backstretch, Marigold being their nearest attendant, Pickuicker and Banquet trailing. Around the upper turn Mars was first by three-quarters of a length Picknicker and Pickpocket looked the think the year on the search and was waiting with Banquet, and seemed to lay a little out of his ground. In the long homestretch Pickspecket and Picknicker, followed by Banquet, and Picknicker, followed his proposed for the search of the Notes from the Race Track, Woodchopper is a roarer. Onward is about due to win. Hyderabad could fly yesterday. The programme for to-day is light. Longshanks races in a throat wrap. Ask Garrison how he likes St. Michael.

Banquet looked well and ran a very good St. Maxim showed yesterday that he likes a dry track. Picknicker would have been a very danger-ous horse at a mile and a quarter yesterday. Had Hamilton persevered with Picknicker he would probably have secured third place.

St. Florian had a chance to win the first race.

Sir Arthur has had his mane trimmed a la

Wah Jim and Woodcutter were responsible for the delay in the last race, both refusing to Roche ran the best race of his life in the sec-ond event, and Lamly rode him with excellent judgment. St. Michael was looking for a hole in the fence alter Sport carried him the first three-quarters of a mile. St. Florian nedded perceptibly as he went to his stable late in the afternoon, his front legs swathed in bandages.

On the Way showed a lot of speed for half a mile and should win a good race for her popu-lar owner. W. H. Sands.

Mr. James R. Keene was an interested spectator and watched Hyderabad closely during the contest for the July Stakes.

Rosa H. is of no account after a long delay at the post, and this usually speedy mare could never keep pace with the leaders in the last race.

Sport redeemed himself yesterday, and Messrs. Taylor and Glipin know that their breadwinner has not gone stale on their hands. It was quite a good day for young Midgley, who rode two winners in Steve Estes and Pick-pocket, and was second in the last race on Sir Arthur.

There is hope for several no-account horses when Steve Estos can win a race. Had Beansey been a starter he would have won the first race, hands down. The time of the first race, 1:20%, for seven furlongs, and the fact that Sport ran a mile in 1:41% with 122 pounds up, indicate that it was a very bad one.

Father Bill Daly was a visitor yesterday, and said he found the game very good at Brighton, He picked a few winners at Monmouth, too, and cashed soveral bets. Joe Taylor said yesterday that he had always instructed the boy having the mount on Sport to keep him in front. Thompson obeyed or-ders, and won a good race.

Pickpocket is certainly well named. He is a thief of the first water and as slippery as his namesake. He did not sulk yesterday, to the great joy of Trainer Rogers and his friends. Newton equalled Ten Brocck's best on record for two miles in a race yesterday over the India rubber track at Washington Park. Newton is a brown colt, four years old, by Billet, out of Vassar, and is owned by Irsland Brothers. Just as the Monmouth left the Highlands last evening with the passengers from the races, a magnificent rainbow appeared that attrethed all the way across the bay. One end rested on Sandy Hook, and the other end touched the base of the Highlands, forming a perfect arch. M. F. Dwyer came down to the track in person to protect Chateau and Hammie in case anybody cared to bid on them. It is doubtful whether $10,000 would buy the pair, but one was in for $1,250 and the other for $1,100. These little sons of Charaxus are certainly breadwinners.

breadwinners. Mr. Keene received word shortly after Hydernbad's victory that Domino had won the Hyde Park Stakes. The race was worth $17,-140 to the winner, and, with the Junior Champlon. Futurity, and other rich events yet to be decided, Domino, if he keeps in trim, should earn more money this year than any other thoroughbred that ever faced the starter in America.

Trainer John Hyland would like to know the whereabouts of Fred Foster and the three-year-old colt Dr. Rice. Hyland has a bill of $1,100 against the Doctor, but Foster spirited the coll away a couple of days ago from the stable while the free way a couple of the stable while the free way a couple of the stable while the free way are the stable while the stable way are the stable way are the stable while the stable way are the stable while the stable way are the stable while the stable way are the stable while the stable way are the stable way while the trainer was over at the race track and had him in New York that evening. Thi is a most singular proceeding, as Dr. Rice wo the Withers Stakes, worth $8,000, while Hylan trained him. It appears that Foster though the trainer's bill was too steep.

Charlie Oxx's Gelding a Broken Reed for Brighton's Talent. The racing at Brighton Beach yesterday was of a very satisfactory character, with possibly the exception of the fifth race, in which Watterson's performance was remarkably tame The starting was on the whole an improve-ment over that of the last few days, with the exception of the last race, when Mr. McLaughlin was too eager to get his field off and dropped the flag with the horses badly strung out. There was a slight falling off in the at-

Berwyn was favorite in the first race at five furlongs. The books posted 7 to 5 against the Stratford gelding on the strength of his performance on the third day of the meeting at the same distance, carrying increased weight. He proved a good thing for the bookmakers, as he was heavily backed to win and finished in the ruck. Laughing Water got away in front, and made the running to the last aix eenth pole, where Crocus made a strong bid for the lead and succeeded in shaking off the Daly representative. Express, in a punishing drive, beat Laughing Water a head for the

The second race, a five furlong dash for maiden two-year-olds, was a puzzler to the talent, Hartford, Anglo, and the Fawn filly being about equal in demand at 3 to 1. Anglo was the only one of the trio that was at all prominent at the finish. Patrolman, a very innocent looking colt at the post, but a tornado at the finish, got the purse. The Gleam filly was in the lead when the flag fell and, with Honey Bee colt in close company, made the running to the upper turn, where the latter had the best of the struggle. As they swung into the homestretch Anglo forged to the front and best of the struggle. As they swung into the homestratch Anglo forged to the front and led to the last furlong pole, where Patrolman, coming up on the outside in a hot linish, shot to the front, winning easily by four lengths from Anglo, who beat Honey Bee colt two lengths for the place.

The old campaigner Geraldine was the talent's choice in the third race, and proved worthy of their confidence. Tom Tough set out with the field in tow at the start, but was early in difficulty and gave way to Major Daly in the first furlong. At the upper turn Geraldine worked her way to the front and led to the finish, winning by a length. Tom Tough ran gamely in the last sixteenth, and making up considerable lost ground got the place half a length in front of Major Daly.

In the fourth race, a handleap at a mile and a sixteenth, Blitzen had the call, with Terrifler well supported at rather short odds. They were a smart-looking ouartet as they lined up at the post. The flag fell at the first break, with Biltzen slightly in the lead. As they raced past the judges' stand Terrifler was in front under a pull, with Biltzen a close second. At the lower turn Biltzen had again taken charge of the running, and opening up a gap of a length as they sped up the backstretch, the son of Blazes held the fleld safe to the finish, winning handly by two lengths. Saragosa closed up in the last few atrides and snatched second money from Terrifler in a hot drive by a short nose.

Watterson was held at the short price of 5 to 4 on, but was not backed as liberally at this fluore as the bookmakers anticipated for the fifth race. They got off promptly. Marcellus had the lead at the start, but retired in the first furlong in favor of the Billet Doux colt, who led to the finish, the easiest of winners by three lengths. Arnica ran second, finishing a like distance in front of Double Cross, third. Watterson finished fourth, and was not prominent at any stage of the race.

Ten starters faced the flag in the last race, and were sent away to a very ragged st

DOMINO'S EASY RACE.

Mr. Reene's Whirlwind Wins the $17,140 Hyde Park Stakes-Fast Time at Chicago, CHICAGO, July 13.—The weather was very hot o-day, and not more than 6,000 persons saw Domino easily dispose of the field that met him or the Hyde Park Stakes at Washington Park. El Telegrafo was expected to finish second to Domino, but fourth was the best he could do. Pedestrian broke the six-furlong record for this track by winning the second race in 1:13%.

Martin, who is under suspension here, was allowed to ride Vassal to-day for Ed Corrigan, who claimed he had a contract with the jockey Seven three-year-olds went to the post in the mile dash that opened the day's sport. First Ward, 112 (Reagan), at 8 to 5, won by two engths from Koko, at 8 to 1, with Aldebaran third. Time, 1:42, The second race was a scramble at six furongs for all ages, and six horses started. Pedestrian, 122 (Taral), at 5 to 3 on, won by a head from Anna Mayes, 3 to 1, with Issie O. third.

trian, 122 (Taral), at 5 to 3 on, won by a head from Anna Mayes, 3 to 1. with Issie O. third. Time, 1:13%.

The third race was the Hyde Park Stakes, at six furiongs, for two-year-olds, worth to the winner $17.140. Domino, 123 (Taral), took the lead shortly after the start, and holding the position to the end won easily by two lengths from Peter The Great, with Vassai only a neck away. El Telegrafo finished fourth. There were nine starters. Domino and El Telegrafo were coupled in the betting, and 4 to 1 on was the best price about the pair.

Eleven horses started in the fourth race, a dash of one mille and seventy yards. Baron, 102 (Tucker), at 4 to 1, won by a length from Tom Flynn at 15 to 1, with Shadow, the favorite, third. Time, 1:45.

The fifth race was a dash of two miles, and five horses started. Newton, 107 (Porter), at 4 to 1, won by two lengths from Prince of Darkness, at 5 to 2, with Versatile, the favorite, third. Time, 3:27%, which equals the best time on record.

A BAD-LOOKING RACE ATPITTSBURGH. Martha Wilkes Paced the First Quarter and Had to Be Helped to Win.

PITTSBURGH, July 13 .- The free-for-all pace was not the only feature of the Grand Circuit meeting to-day. After the finish of the postponed trotting free-for-all at 11 o'clock this morning the betting shed was filled with experienced turfmen, who pronounced the affair a shameless fraud. Martha Wilkes was not at all herself to-day, her three heats of yesterday having made the olg mare sore and stale. She paced almost to the quarter pole, where Palmer pulled her to a break in order to set her to trotting. When she recovered and came on, Hazel Wilkes and Nightingale, moving not faster than a 2:20 gait, were pulled out to let the favorite through at the pole. Lord Clinton, who led to the three-quarters in 1:43%, a 2:17% gait, made a break at the head of the homestretch, and Martha Wilkes finished first by half a length. The judges had hardly proclaimed her winner of the heat and race before the drivers had weighed in, and before their attention could be called to the gait at which Martha Wilkes had gone nearly all the first quarter, they announced the time as 2:14%, when every outside timer on the track made it nearly a second slower. Turimen who had seeu Hazel Wilkes drive the winner out to head in 2:11% the day before, scouted the idea that such time would take her measure to-day. Magnolis lost a boot and broke badly soon after the start.

The free-for-all pace did not fulfil expectations. Hal Pointer was not at all himself, and he could make no sort of a contest for the speedy gelding Mascot. The latter started an even-money favorite, and he won in three heats, the last two of which were taken with something to spare. Major Wonder was the best of the fielders. He gave Mascot a rattling contest in the opening heat. Guy disappointed his followers by growing unsteady and getthree-quarters in 1:43%, a 2:17% gait, made a
